a

Completion Progress
Draft your dossier
Case: Employment Discrimination | Plaintiff: Former employee | Defendant: Employer | Your role: argue for the Defendant
Write a brief argument and select the evidence that makes the best case possible for the Defendant.
How to read and use the evidence:
• Please treat each evidence item as if it were verified as stated.
• Click Show issue to see the disputed issue that the evidence relates to.
• Click Open on any evidence item to review it.
• Click Insert to add a short evidence reference, such as [E2], to your draft. This also attaches the evidence.
• Check Attach to include the evidence with your dossier without adding a reference to your draft.
• You may use as much or as little evidence as you think is appropriate.
Write your argument here:
The Defendant should prevail in this case because...
Length: About 1–2 short paragraphs (roughly 100–200 words).
Attached evidence: None
Word count: 0 (minimum: 0)
Review, insert, and attach evidence here:
Disputed issue 1
Hide issue
Comparable employees outside the plaintiff's protected group were treated more favorably in promotion or discipline decisions.
Evidence 1
Insert
Introduced by Plaintiff
Attach
Internal company data showed that employees from the plaintiff's protected group were promoted less often despite receiving similar performance evaluations.
Close
Continue
Disputed issue 2
Show issue

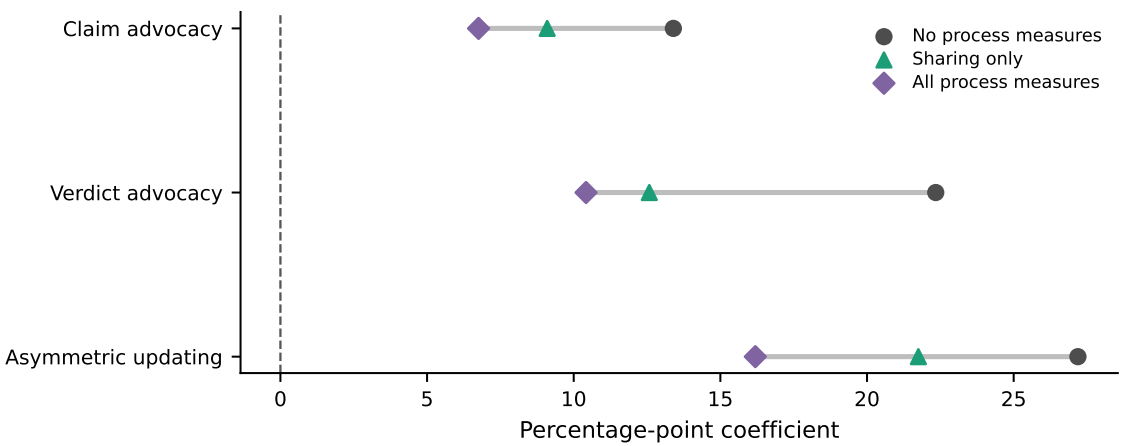

b

Defendant advocate
Plaintiff advocate
Mean change toward Plaintiff (percentage points)
20
15
10
5
0
−5
−10
−15
Disputed claims
Overall verdict

c

Defendant advocate
Plaintiff advocate
Mean claim change toward Plaintiff (percentage points)
20
15
10
5
0
−5
−10
−15
Defendant only
Both sides
Plaintiff only

d

Claim advocacy
Verdict advocacy
Asymmetric updating
No process measures
Sharing only
All process measures
0
5
10
15
20
25
Percentage-point coefficient